

Volunteer Behavioural Therapist

Role: Volunteer Behavioural Therapist

Reports to CEO/ Behavioural Therapist Manager

Location, time commitment, start: Cupar, 4hrs a week for 2 months, start in January 2023

Purpose of the role: Supporting Nurture Steps in the running of 1-1 Early Intervention Sessions for children with additional support needs and their families.

General & Key Responsibilities:

- Taking data
- Pairing with children, building rapport with parents
- Writing session notes
- Preparing for sessions, goals and targets
- Creating resources
- Working with families under supervision

Qualifications & Skills required for this Role:

- Minimum High School Diploma or equivalent
- Minimum 1 year of experience in a supervised role with Children and Families
- Interest in Early Intervention
- Interest in Psychology
- Ambitious about becoming qualified

About you

- Shares the values, vision and mission of Nurture Steps
- Experience and/or understanding of disabilities relevant to the organisation
- Respectful, encouraging and supportive, has an eye for detail
- Excellent social-emotional-communication skills

Nurture Steps incorporated in Scotland. Company Number SC701889. Charity Number SC051063.

t: 07922 824 758 e: info@nurturesteps.com w: www.nurturesteps.com

- Enthusiastic loves to play with children
- Organised, self-motivated and enjoys the creation of content
- Driven by the charities' intentions and ethos
- Close to or in Cupar

Commitment and requirements

- PVG
- 4 hours per week
- 1 hour of group supervision per month minimum
- Working with <3 families per week with low-level behavioural issues. Should moderately challenging issues arise, supervision will be increased and volunteer involvement decrease

Support

You will be given full support from a Consultant with one scheduled meeting per week and extra meetings should there be the implementation of new strategies or moderate behavioural challenges. If you are working towards a BCBA, you will have meetings with a BCBA-approved Supervisor.

Training

- Induction to volunteering for Nurture steps
- Induction to clinical family work
- Safeguarding
- Positive Behaviour Support after agreement

Record your interest

Email: info@nurturesteps.com

